the catch of the day. Hoist the white sails an - d catch the big wind, bl - o - w long, bl - o - w strong, As we catch big - ger fish tales each time we sing our song.

No-w it is time to re - turn to our moors. So, we search the sites of the sea and shore. When we see the flow - ers blo - om on the sea,

We know to stay to the port side of me. Th - e sounds of bark -

Ri-sing from the qui - et de - pths of the sea, Is the fier - cest sea

Our fami - ly gr - eets us back at the docks.
